Former Adel Hand Car wash

A number of residents have been asking where the Adel Hand Car Wash has gone and one or two other questions about what is actually replacing it. The answer to the latter is that it will be a BP service station with a Marks & Spencer food outlet and it is understood that this will be completed by early December.

The Hand Car Wash has moved to:

Park Hand Car Wash, Texaco Petrol station West Park Ring Road, Horsforth, LS16 6EB.
(opposite McDonalds)

Some people were worried that some of the workers may have lost their jobs but Barry Anderson was advised that no jobs were lost in the move. The same team from Adel will be cleaning vehicles at the new location.

Revised X84 Timetable

Following consultation, the X84 bus will be coming through Pool on some of its journeys. The diverted X84 will run Monday to Saturday with a service number "X85". The first day will be Monday 23 October. Please see the Pool news website for the updated X84 bus timetable.

Pool-in-Wharfedale 2018 calendar

After a break of a few years, and by popular request, a calendar for 2018 has been specially produced which shows a mixture of past and present photos of the village. It retails at £6.50 and is on sale at Pool Post Office Stores. They make an excellent Christmas present, especially as a large envelope is enclosed for easy posting to family and friends. Due to circumstances, a limited number have been produced. If you would like one don't delay your visit to the post office as no more copies can be made.

All profits go to the charities of Macmillan Cancer Support and Pool Village Memorial Hall. Over the years, due to the sale of these calendars, walks and history books of the village, well over £2,000 has been donated to these charities. Thanks go to you and the Pool Post Office who have always been willing to have them on sale.

Women's Institute

The next meeting of the WI will be on Tuesday 10th October 2.00pm at Wharfedale Court. This meeting will be the AGM followed by a games afternoon.

Latest Scam information

Police in Leeds are urging residents to be wary of cold callers following reports of bogus calls from Department of Work and Pensions. An elderly female victim, in her 80s, from Moortown in Leeds, was contacted by someone claiming they were from the DWP stating she owed thousands of pounds. The caller told her she could pay this off at a reduced rate if she purchased I-Tunes vouchers. The lady bought some vouchers, £500 in total, they then contacted her by phone and asked her to scratch the panel and give the serial numbers to them.

Enquiries are ongoing in relation to this incident.

Detective Inspector Anne Banks, of Leeds CID, said: "If you receive un-solicited telephone calls from anyone saying they are from a Government agency saying you owe them money which you can pay back by purchasing I-Tunes or other vouchers, please do not buy any – contact the police.

"We ask residents to remain vigilant and not to pass on any personal or bank details to anyone they are not expecting a call from. Make sure you check their identification and if you have any doubts at all about their authenticity ask them to wait while you call the company they claim to work for to verify they are indeed an employee. Anyone with any information or concerns is asked to contact the police via 101 or alternatively information can be passed to Action Fraud."

Air quality market research survey

Research is currently being conducted with Leeds Beckett University to find out the views and thoughts of people and businesses around Leeds on air quality.

There is now a live link to the survey which has been put together to meet this aim - <http://bit.ly/LeedsCleanAirSurvey> - and everyone involved is keen to get as many responses as possible, as it will help inform the behavioural change campaign going forward in 2018.

If you can spare a few minutes to complete the survey, it would be appreciated.
